

NEW YORK TIMES

24 APR 1968

Overseas Press
Club of America

Overseas Press Club Presents Annual Awards at Dinner Here

The Overseas Press Club presented its annual awards at a dinner Monday night at the New York Hilton Hotel, where Vice President Humphrey was the main speaker. The awards were:

Best daily newspaper or wire service reporting from abroad: Joe Alex Morris, The Los Angeles Times.

Best daily newspaper or wire service interpretation of foreign affairs: Michael R. McGrady, Newsday, and R. W. Apple Jr., The New York Times.

Best daily newspaper or wire service photographic reporting from abroad: Peter Skinglay, United Press International.

Best magazine or book photographic reporting or interpretation from abroad: Lee Lockwood, Black Star Publishing.

Best radio reporting from abroad: Don North, American Broadcasting Company.

Best radio interpretation of foreign affairs: James Robinson and Welles Hagen, National Broadcasting Company.

Best television reporting from abroad: Ted Yates, N.B.C.

Best television interpretation of foreign affairs: Eric Severeid, Columbia Broadcasting System.

Best magazine reporting from abroad: Linda Grant Martin, The New York Times Magazine.

Best magazine interpretation of foreign affairs: Frances Fitzgerald, The Atlantic Monthly.

Best book on foreign affairs: Memoire, by George F. Kennan.

Vision Magazine Ed Stout Award for the best article or reporting (any medium) on Latin America: Laura Bergquist, Look Magazine.

F. W. Fairchild Award for the best business news reporting (any medium) from abroad: Ray Vicker, The Wall Street Journal.

Asia Magazine Award for the best article for reporting on Asia: Horace Sutton, The Saturday Review.

Robert Capa Gold Medal Award for superlative still photography requiring courage and enterprise abroad: David Douglas Duncan, Life Magazine.

Overseas Press Club George Polk Memorial Award for the best reporting requiring exceptional courage and enterprise abroad: Eric Pace, The New York Times.